

Master Difficult Parent Conversations – Hamilton Workshop

Do parent conversations sometimes get tense, emotional or stuck? This half-day workshop gives you proven tools to handle them calmly and confidently.

- Stay composed under pressure
- Communicate your key points clearly
- Defuse emotion and guide toward solutions

“The schools that attended Pete’s PLD raved about the hands-on nature of the day. Pete’s ability to weave incredibly useful content into the scenarios we used to practice the skills he outlined was outstanding. Whilst some of the role-plays were daunting, this is where the real learning took place. All leaders left feeling much better prepared.”

— Steve King, Kōhūhi Ako Leader & Principal, Remuera Primary

- Location: Hamilton (Venue to be confirmed)
