
The systems, when used effectively are extremely powerful and valuable tools within the school context. It is therefore worth investing time into setting up an overall approach to the use of them which involves everyone and can support teachers in meeting the needs of all their learners. (Ekins and Grimes, 2009).

Learning MATTERS
presents...

SENCO Systems

What works and why...

Establishing / reviewing your SENCO Systems

Early identification of literacy difficulties

Progress tracking systems

Collaborative action plan examples which engage all stakeholders

EVIDENCE based support in a school setting

Thursday 3rd November

9am - 3pm

Presented by Carla McNeil & Kylie McKay

Cost: $240+GST includes morning tea and lunch

Venue: St Joseph's School 88 Clarkin Road Hamilton

Email: admin@learningmatters.co.nz

*Spaces are limited

Registrations close Tuesday 1st November

Like