

WELLINGTON
Conference 2018

Creative Leaders, Flourishing Futures

Ko te ahurei, o te tamaiti, arahia o tatou mahi

23 - 26 October 2018

You are invited to join us at conference in October.
Spread the word – tell your colleagues, bring your leadership teams!

When: 3pm Tuesday 23 October – Lunchtime Friday 26 October

Venue: TSB Arena & Shed 6, Wellington

Cost: Earlybird full registration (before 25 July) $1,050 & GST

Day registrations also available. Registration is open now – go to www.nzpfconference.com

Conference Themes:

Creative leadership & creative teaching – the why and the how. You will be exposed to some challenging thinking about teaching and learning, and about delivering education creatively. You will have some opportunities to engage in creatively cultural events yourself, to network, and spend some time being inspired.

Key speakers confirmed to date:

Dr Tony Wagner (USA)	Senior Research Fellow at the Learning Policy Institute, previously with Harvard Innovation Lab. Tony was the founder of the Change Leadership Group, Harvard, and is a former principal & teacher.
Dr Jason Fox (Australia)	Modern-day wizard-rogue, author and leadership advisor.
Joanne McEachen (USA)	Global New Measures Director for New Pedagogies for Deep Learning.
Professor Peter O'Connor (NZ)	Head of School of Critical Studies in Education, University of Auckland
Silvia Libow Martinez (USA)	Co-author of Invent to Learn: Making, Tinkering and Engineering in the Classroom
Hon Chris Hipkins (NZ)	Minister of Education
Kaila Colbin (NZ)	Co-founder and Chair of the non-profit Ministry of Awesome; the Curator of TEDxChristchurch & TEDxScottBase; Chair of the New York-based Natural Gourmet Institute; Deputy Chair of CORE Education; and a Director of Christchurch NZ
Dame Denise L'Estrange Corbet (NZ)	Co-founder of WORLD, fashion designer and speaker
Jehan Casinader (NZ)	Journalist and conference MC

Social programme details and accommodation options are also available on the website.

www.nzpfconference.com