CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

Attach this entry form securely to the TOP HALF of your scarecrow

- Scarecrows will be displayed in an upright position fastened to a stake in the ground.
- There is no limit to the number of scarecrows entered although they each require individual entry forms.
- Two scarecrows selected by public vote from each category will receive prizes. A bonus prize will be awarded by the Friends of Hamilton Gardens.
- Prizes will be presented in the Kitchen Garden at 2pm on Sunday 1 November 2020.
- Scarecrows will remain on display for one week following the competition (unless they become damaged or unstable).
- Scarecrows must be collected on Monday 9 November between 11am - 4.30pm. Remaining scarecrows become property of Hamilton City Council.
- If you'd like to collect your scarecrow earlier or need more information, contact Patricia.parrindave44@gmail.com or 021 064 0449.
